“ My sincere regrets for the loss of Rori. I was mostly around her through her friendship with my sister Jennifer. They were 4 years younger than I. I remember Rori as a kind, happy teen. My favorite is a time when were putting make-up on. I was putting blue eyeshadow on her and we were all laughing and gossiping like most teenagers do. Her puppy dog eyes were so filled with an lust for her life to come. She was a beautiful girl and woman. Her death has brought about a rush of memories about that time in all our lives and smiles. Rori could make you laugh with her sharp wit. She is at peace and I can only hope that gives her family some comfort. She will be dearly missed by my sister and many whom she has known. My thoughts go out to her family.
