“ I was very sad to receive the news of Rosemary passing, but I am sure she is living Eternal life Heaven. I worked with Rosemary at Community Builders and she was a great mentor to me. One of the many things she taught me was to write everything down, and I do. So, as I have gone from one job to another throughout my career, I always remember her words of wisdom, and they have served me well. My great memories of her will live on for ever, I thank God for letting me have the wonderful opportunity of having her as a dear friend 🙏

“ Rosemary and Charlie were clients of mine for years and followed me wherever I was moved. They were the dearest, sweetest and loyal friends to me which I appreciated very much. Rosemary was the picture of the perfect business woman, and even as I delivered Meal On Wheels to her she looked like she was ready to go to the office. Shane Oldfield

“ My mother, Jean Quelette, was a friend of Rosemary's via the Clintonville Women's Club. My mom loved Rosemary very much so I wanted to convey to your family our condolences. My mom passed away in 2016 and hadn't seen Rosemary for many years but I remember meeting Rosemary at several get togethers with my mom and another friend Cil Kohrman. I'll remember Rosemary as this sweet, well dressed woman who was the epitome of class and decorum. God bless you, Brian Quelette.
