“ I was so sad to hear about Phyllis’ passing. Teresa and I had been talking about visiting her for a long time and we didn’t. Then we heard that she was not doing well. I sent a message to Barney who told me that she passed away. I sure do hope that she knew I loved her.

She was a motherly presence in my life and a grandmotherly example to my children. She was my babysitter for almost 15 years. I trusted her completely. She loved babies. I’m sure that my kids remember her nibbling their ears!

She treated me like family. She was family because two of my sisters were married to two of her sons!

I liked watching her make fudge. She did it the old fashioned way by dropping a dollop of the chocolate into a glass of cold water. If it was the right texture of hard she knew it!

She was funny and smart and she loved Jesus.

I will miss you Phyllis! Rest with Jesus 🙏

Love, Jodi
