

Roy Walter Nash III

January 29, 1951 - June 21, 2015

Roy W. Nash, III reposed in the Lord at his son's home in Ohio on the morning of June 21. After a long struggle with chronic illness, Roy died while being comforted by his family – including the wife-of-his-youth, Kathy. His son Ryan, daughter Dawn Price and their families survive him. Roy was 64 years old. A funeral service will be held Wednesday, June 24 at Rutherford – Corbin Funeral Home in Worthington, Ohio. A graveside service will follow. In lieu of flowers or other memorials the family is honoring his request to direct donations to St. Nicholas Orthodox Church, 191 King Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43201.

Roy was born January 29, 1951 in Waco, Texas. He was the only child of Roy W. Nash, Jr. and Dorothy S. Nash of Waco, Texas, who preceded him in death. He was a graduate of Waco High School (class of 1969) and Baylor University (1974). He lived and worked most of his life in Arlington, Waco, and Temple, Texas. He married Kathy Martin in 1969. They have 2 children and 11 grandchildren. He moved to Ohio in 2014 to be cared for by Kathy, his son and family. Special thanks to the faithful of St. Nicholas parish and the staff of the Laurels of Norworth and Ohio Health Hospice for their assistance in his care.

“ I went to school with Roy for four years, in grades 7-10, in the Connally school system in Waco, Texas. He was a good friend, and I am very sorry to learn of his untimely passing.
