

Rugad Hanna Thieman

November 15, 1963 - June 9, 2022

Rugad Hanna Thieman, age 58 of Delaware, Ohio, passed away on June 9th, 2022, of a heart attack while snorkeling, then was transported to St. Thomas Schneider Medical, USVI. Hanna was born on November 15th, 1963, in Amman, Jordan to Yousef Abboud and Aida Abboud. Hanna graduated from high school in Amman, Jordan and went on to receive a Bachelor's in English Literature from Jordan University in Irbid. Hanna had been a Certified Personal Banker since 1999. Hanna has two children, Edmond and Sarah. In October, 2015, she married Bruce Thieman, and they added Stephanie, Kimberly, Deanna, Lisa, and Allison to the family. Hanna joyfully combined her family and Bruce's into one crew. Hanna was a perpetual, loving giver of both time and money. She was a Eucharistic Minister who brought Communion to assisted living. She also helped with soup kitchens, women's crisis centers, water projects in Kenya, and gave aid to Palestinian and Syrian Christians. Her good work never ended. And of course, all her local friends just had to text about a problem, and the cavalry was on its way. A call for help was her call to action, and she loved God and Jesus above all else. Hanna's pilgrimage to all the Marian shrines in Europe was a highlight of her life, and every trip included visiting new churches along the route. She dearly loved her home in the Holy Land of Palestine. Hanna was involved with Focus on Right to Life, Delaware, and Columbus Soup Kitchens. Hanna is predeceased in death by her father, Yousef Abboud, of Hilliard, Ohio. She is survived by her husband Bruce Thieman of Delaware, Ohio; daughter Sarah Crickard of Marysville, Ohio; son Edmond Atala of Beavercreek, Ohio);, mother Aida Abboud of Delaware, Ohio);, sisters Rana Abboud of Hilliard, Ohio and Manal Abboud, of Amman, Jordan; and brother Nabil Abboud, of Hilliard, Ohio. Funeral services will take place on Monday, June 20th, 2022, at 10 AM at St. Brendan the Navigator Catholic Church, 4475 Dublin Road, Hilliard, OH 43026 with Father Frank Brown and Seminarian Daniel Colbey officiating. “ Condolences to Everyone that had the privilege of meeting and knowing Hanna; especially her family. Hanna will be forever with me. So many laughs!!! This woman is nothing but love incarnate. I could say that on more than MANY occasions i saw her go out of her way to help anyone that needed it - but I would be wrong...because with Hanna it was never out of her way to help others; it is who she is. The world gained a guardian angel. Thanks for being you friend.
