“ Janette-
So sorry to hear of Shep's passing. I was always amazed at his (and your's) resiliency despite his multiple medical challenges. His takes on life and his encyclopedic knowledge about...well, everything was always interesting and often profound. He was a unique and colorful individual and I was the better for knowing him. Be Well.

“ Shep was what some may call stubborn. I like to think He knew what he liked. He was a wealth of information and funny. I often think of the stories he shared. I hope you'll keep the license plate (smile). I know he will be missed and I am sorry for your loss.
