

Russell Kline

April 2, 1932 - January 27, 2021

Russell M. Kline, Jr. died peacefully on January 27, 2021 in Columbus, Ohio. He was born April 2, 1932 in Reading, PA. Russ is survived by his wife Marcia and their six children: Beth, Mike (Jane), Jeff (Sherry), Mark (Lynnette), Cindy Morrison (Dellos) and Matt (Caralee Schmitt); thirteen grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. Russ and Marcia were married for sixty-eight years and he was retired from Rich Products in Buffalo, NY. A longtime member of Central College Presbyterian Church, Russ sang in the choir, enjoyed working in God's Garden, and volunteered for other church activities. He loved playing golf and all types of card games. A Celebration of Life ceremony will be held at Central College Presbyterian Church in July.

“ *To The Kline Family
My deepest sympathies to each of you. Russ was a great man, mentor and a friend. He was an outstanding role-model both professionally and personally. Heaven got brighter with Russ's arrival.
Prayers and God's precious Peace be with you my friend.
Sincerely

“ Russ was a good friend of my fathers, Kenny Rapp, and I also had the pleasure of working with Russ at Rich Products. I remember the happiness and sense of genuine caring when Russ was around.

*May he rest in peace.

“ Our sincere condolences to Marcia, Cindy, Dellos and the entire family. Russ and Marcia were neighbors, along with the Morrison's. Russ was always quick with a smile and was a great neighbor. Many years ago we played cards at the Morrison's with Russ and he was a very good card player and serious about the rules. I took his word whenever he said "according to Hoyle" because I knew that he probably had it memorized. We will miss him.
