“ My favorite memory of my Aunt Ruth was when I was about thirteen years old. I had come to her house for a few days. For a special treat we went to a movie at the Palace Theater in downtown Columbus. I had a dress to wear to church. So we both got dressed up in our "Sunday clothes." She fixed my hair, helped me put on make-up, and polished my nails green. she even found a pair of HIGH heeled shoes for me to wear. That was my first "night on the town" and it was wonderful.

Thank you, Ruth. God bless you. Say "hi" to Mom, Dad and Granny for me.

I love you, Melody

“ Ruth was my favorite "Aunt". She was warm, loving, and so much fun, even though she would make you "follow the rules". She always had time for a visit - just sitting around the kitchen table, catching up on what had been going on in our lives. Aunt Ruth would send Thank You notes or messages via a postcard. She would put on the coolest stickers and the messages were heart felt. My favorite holiday, at her house, was Thanksgiving. The food was great, but the homemade noodles were awesome!!!!. I loved my Aunt Ruth with all my heart. I am so glad I was in her life and will look forward to seeing her again. xoxoxoxoxo
