“ My name is William Hartman. I met Sally at Sprint Lube where I worked as the manager. I met her during her battle. She told me about her struggles, and we prayed together. She spoke of how great, and supportive her friends were. She had a great church that she went to. Sally loved to take rides with her friends on their Harley's. Even though her battle was tough she had a great smile, laugh, and hope. She loved God and she loved life. I was blessed by God that our paths crossed. Sally even showed her kindness to my wife in a letter explaining how we had met at Sprint Lube. We kept in touch for a long time. She blessed my wife Robin and I with her kindness. Sally smiles down at us all from Heaven, and I look forward to seeing her again. Sincerely William and Robin Hartman.

“ I'm so sorry--Extending deepest thoughts, prayers and sympathy to all of you, and wishing each of you the comfort of happy memories. I've had the pleasure of playing cards with Marty from time to time.

Sincerely,

Lloyd Baker, 08/28/2015
