“ Bob, Sean, Lisa, and family, we are so sorry to hear of Sally's passing. We have many great memories of when our families were young at Our Lady of Peace - belting out "The Sun'll Come Out Tomorrow" in the car, Sean learning to ride a two-wheeler, and Lisa cartwheeling across the living room. We hope you will find consolation in your family and friends and faith.

“ I am saddened to learn today of Sally's passing. We were both members of the Collage Group of Artists, and from day one, she welcomed me, and I always enjoyed seeing her at our meetings. She was one of the hardest working artists, always showing and producing art. She is truly missed in our group.

*Last time I saw her, she was recovering from a bout of Covid.
God Bless her and her family.*

*Respectfully,
Debra Joyce Dawson*

“ So sorry to hear this. We were in CWA for years. When my husband died in Feb of 2025 we had six inches of snow and freezing cold but still Sally came to the funeral home. Our group exchanged an original picture at Christmas and the first year I was a member I got a watercolor flower from Sally. She sat with me at many meetings and made me really feel at home with the group. I will truly miss hearing about the show s and fairs she was in. Jean Langkamp

“ Sally & I were cousins. Her mom Evelyn's the oldest of 7 Children & my mom Dorothy was the youngest. When I was young we lived in Cincinnati Ohio. Whenever we came to Columbus to visit,we always spent time at the McNamaras. What fun we had!! When I was 12 our family moved to KC,MO. I didn't see Sally again until until our Ant June passed away & came back to her home in Columbus for her burial. We had a small family reunion where I got to meet Sally's husband & children. She shared some of her beautiful water colors of flowers. She was very talented & gifted. As you grieve the loss of your love one Sally know that she is at peace & is celebrating Christmas this year with Jesus her Savior & the rest of her family in Heaven. God bless you till the day we will all reunite again. Nancy Kaul.
