“ Sally married my cousin John Ubbing from Columbus, Ohio. For many years we celebrated our family reunion called LIBERATORE DAY. Sally, John and the children came to Maryland and we had many a good times. These are the memories to hold onto.

Eventually the tradition of LIBERATORE DAY, faded as many were much older and many has passed. No longer is there s celebration down the shore on the Severn River in Maryland. Sally was a very bright gal...and at one point in time she had and accounting and bookkeeping service that she called MY GAL SAL....We do not realize how fast time flies and we look back to say ...I wish we had more time together, Dee, Patrick and Adam McGuire. Amy also send her condolences from Mechanicsburg, Pa.

“ My name is Bonnie Twigg Clark. My sister Madeline Twigg Miller watched Sally and John's children while we all lived on East Beechwold Blvd. Madeline loved the children.

Madeline passed September 20, 2018. She was 69 yrs. Madeline had three boys and 6 grandchildren. I'm sure Madeline and Sally talked through the years. Now they can chat together with the Angels in Heaven. God Bless!

“ Growing up with my cousin Sally was always fun! I looked up to her and admired her and still do! She is a tremendous witness to God's grace and unconditional love. She was brave and fierce in her fight with cancer but chose to focus on all the positive things in life. She is without a doubt with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and is without any pain.

We all miss her and have many wonderful memories to sustain us until we join her in Heaven. My prayers for all her family whom she loved so very much! Hugs and wishing I was there!
