My mama meant the world to many people from the many stories I have heard within the last few weeks. I attached a photo of us when we were at Disney World in Florida of the one of many memories I shared with her. She is the most selfless person I know, my hero, and the one person I could always depend on to be at when otherwise I would be alone, such as my graduation at Parris Island, airports terminals from my deployment arrivals, to name just a few of many. You will be sorely missed, mama. I love you with all my heart, God Bless and say "Hello" to Jesus for me.....

PS. Thanks for all of those who attended the Celebration Of Life held for my dearest loving mother, Sandra Reed. My sister and I thank your from the bottom of our hearts. If I had mistakenly left anyone out or spelled a name incorrectly, I apologize upfront, gave it my best college try, and ask for forgiveness as I am just a man.....

“ I was 10 and Sandy my older sister was 16 when she took me to see my first movie titled “Bambi” at the Mansfield, Ohio theatre. She drove a stick shift Tempest and would grind the clutch almost every time she shifted sitting on pillows because she was so short. She was always a kind spirited sister and will be sorely missed. Love you Sandy.
