“ My sincere condolences on your loss. I had the pleasure of working with Sandy at First American and found him to be an incredible man of the highest integrity. I am deeply saddened by his passing and will always remember him with great fondness. He was a hard man to know, but once you earned his respect you kept it. There are few too many like him in this world.

“ Sharon, David, Pam, Rachel and Andrew, our hearts go out to you. Sandy will be missed far more than mere words can describe. We will miss looking across the street and seeing him polishing his newest Harley or mowing his perfect lawn. We will miss the smiles and waves as he and Sharon rode down the street. There are so many more things we will miss as well. Bryton Drive has suffered a terrible loss. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ Sandy was a good man, a good husband, and a good father. Our thoughts are with the Agrast family as they come together to honor him. All we as human beings can hope for is to make a difference in the world with the life we have been given and the life that we live. It's safe to say that Sandy made a positive difference in having been here and those who knew him felt that difference. We wish comfort for the Agrast family heart as they deal with this loss. Sandy, we will miss you.
