

Sara Lee Ramsey

December 27, 1942 - May 26, 2024

Sara L. Ramsey, 81, of Naples, Florida, passed away on Sunday, May 26, 2024. She was born on December 27, 1942, in Woodstock, Ohio, to the late Wilson, fondly known as Bud, and Ruth (Rutan) Lee.

Sara was a military wife who dedicated herself to caring for her children, Steve and Star, during her husband Stan's service in the United States Air Force. She was known for her unwavering support and strength during his deployments. In her professional life, Sara began as a secretary for the USAF before transitioning to the private sector. She established Suburban Pool and Spa alongside her husband, where she made lasting connections with customers and colleagues. Sara's passion for cooking was renowned, with her potato salad becoming a family favorite. She cherished spending time with her partner, Clyde Welch, and their family and friends. Evenings at the hut, Ohio nights at the clubhouse, and leisurely rides on the golf cart were among her treasured pastimes. She is survived by her partner Clyde Welch, children Steve (Christine) Ramsey and Star (Jason) Simpson; grandchildren Kara, Garrett (Natalie), Ashley (Sam) and Jarod; great-grandchildren Brynn, Carson, Wesley, Callen, Dane, Cameron, Fox, Cyd, Van, Torin, and Talon; many nieces and nephews; and her beloved dog Lacy. Sara was preceded in death by her spouse, Stanford Ramsey, and siblings Phoebe Myers, Roger Lee, and Ruth Ann Lembke. A private graveside service will be held to honor Sara's life and legacy. Mom/Mimi will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Her memory will forever live in our hearts. In place of flowers, end every conversation with I love you, like she did.

Tribute Wall

SA

“ The last five years Sara and I have gotten to know each other. She shared much of our families history with me. This was a great deal of comfort to me. I grew to love her and will miss her terribly. Susan

susan Biggerstaff Alexander - May 30, 2024 at 12:44 PM