“ Sarah was a very dear & special friend, and I will really miss her! We met 5 yrs ago at a Chi Gong class, and we connected instantly! I truly believe that she turned her struggles with her health into the most exquisite Beauty and the deepest spiritual wisdom! She once told me that I was "Spiritually Dynamic" and we shared many wonderful philosophical discussions. She encouraged me to share my gifts, and she helped me to understand myself and life and many things! She was rare, Unique, deep , perceptive, artistic, Zen & Gifted , I would love to perhaps have a gathering, later this summer, for Sarah's close friends & family, to share stories and maybe form new bonds or friendships, so that we can help each other to keep memories of Sarah with us, and to learn more about our most amazing friend / family member, through our shared stories and remembrances.

“ Sarah has touched a lot of lives. She was there for me when I was divorced and helped to get me out of the house. She encouraged me to look for a man to share my life and I met my current husband. So I often think I may not have met him without her. We all know she had a unique, inquisitive and artistic view of the world. Even facing cancer, she did not loose this or her wit, humor and care and interest in others.
