

Sarah A. Mahle

March 24, 2009

Sarah A. Mahle, 74, went peacefully into the arms of God after a lengthy battle with cancer. She was an avid OSU football fan and a longtime member of the choir at Maple Grove United Methodist Church. Sarah is survived by a son, Jerry David (Cathy) Mahle, of Tucson, AZ. A memorial service will be held at 1:00 p.m. Sunday, March 29, 2009 at Maple Grove United Methodist Church, 7 West Henderson Road, Columbus. The family would like to give a special thank you to all her friends at Cardinal Health and for the kindness and care of the HomeReach Hospice-Kobacker House staff.

Tribute Wall

“ Sarah A. Mahle

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ Sarah left a mark on me that saved my life. I owe a lot to her, I always looked up to her.

Lea Ann - October 27, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Jerry ... Your mother's service was lovely. Rest assured that her memory was well cared for. I'm sorry that we couldn't have had more contact in the later years. Cousin Gene

Gene Burch - March 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Jerry, Dad said it perfectly. You and your mother are in our thoughts.

Geoff Burch - March 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Thanks Mom for all good times and laughter, Ohio State Football games and the love and support you gave me in my life. We went through some tough times together and you never quite. I loved you dearly and will miss you. Love your son David.

Jerry Mahle - March 27, 2009 at 12:00 AM

VH

“ Sorry to hear about Sarah's passing, but thankful she went peacefully. Sarah's mother was our Great Aunt Margaret. We visited Aunt Margaret and Uncle Jim and family a lot when we were kids. Our older brothers, Ronny and Tommy were closer in age to Joe and Nan. Sarah was about 10 yrs older than me and 6 yrs. older than Dick. Love and prayers, Cousins, Vicky Hand and Dick Hand, Chillicothe, Ohio.

Vicky Hand - March 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM