“Mathew 25, 35:40

35 For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. 36 I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.’ 37 “Then these righteous ones will reply, ‘Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? 38 Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? 39 When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit you?’ 40 “And the King will say, ‘I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!”

My sister Sandra lived her life serving God in this way. She opened her home to those in need of shelter and shared her table with them, providing them the warmth of her hospitality. She was a great Beauty inside and out. She loved her children, extended family, and friends deeply and shared her gusto for life everywhere she went. Just as her son Mike (Brad) said in his tribute, Sandra always declared that this or that was the greatest or best ever or the worst and most horrible. She did not deal in mediocrities and lived everyday she could with Gusto and we loved her likewise. She strived for excellence in her every endeavor and often achieved excellence. Yet, when faced with setbacks, trials, and tribulations she always found a way to take good care of her children because that was what she did. Sandra possessed great strength and character. She reinvented herself throughout her life. Sandra went from hairdresser to salon owner; then circumstances changed and she entered into government service. When she was in her mid-life she once again reinvented herself and became a working college student. Sandra graduated with honors attaining an accounting degree. She retired as an accountant from DFAS. Her family loved her and we were proud of her. Sandra is a remarkable woman and no one will replace her in our lives. I will always love and miss my sister. My condolences to everyone who ever loved her.
