

Scott Chalfant

July 18, 1969 - March 6, 2022

(Thomas) Scott Chalfant

7/18/69 - 3/6/22

Scott was born at George Air Force Base, Victorville California and grew up in Columbus Ohio. He died unexpectedly of a heart attack early Sunday morning. He leaves behind many who loved him and will miss him.

No parent expects their child to die before them and Scott's mother and father, Deborah and Tom Chalfant are heartbroken at the sudden loss of their son.

Scott also leaves behind his loving partner Tammy Spitler, sister Kaylin Brecht (Nick), niece Grace Brecht, Grandmother Jean Parker, Aunt Karen Parker, Uncles Dave Chalfant and Gary (Kim) Parker, cousins Josh and Cherith Marotti, Cory and Olivia Parker, Tommy (Jeanine), David Chalfant, and Kami (Cliff) Matthews, nephews, Gunner, Charlie, and Dylan Grover. He will also be missed by his second family (who called him Scooter) Amy, Charlie, Jessica, Jacob, Justin (Samantha) and Cora, Domitrovich, and Dallas (Angel), and Theo Spitler, and many friends.

Scott loved life, his family and his friends. He had a great sense of humor, wonderful smile, and big heart. He was a man of integrity, loyalty, and always ready to help family and friends. Scott was a hard worker and loved figuring out how to fix or repurpose just about anything. He knew so much about so many things and could explain it to you in detail. Scott worked for over 22 years in property maintenance applying all that knowledge. He also loved working as a stagehand at large concert venues. He loved his music and had quite a large collection of memorabilia from the shows he worked. Scott also loved children and was an important part of Rylan, Dallas, Justin, Jacob and Jessica's life.

Scott loved sports and excelled in soccer, baseball, and basketball when he was younger. Just like his grandpa, Bob Parker, Scott ushered for Ohio State Buckeye football games and when he stopped, he watched every game (with running commentary) with his dad. He also ushered for Columbus Crew games. He was an avid Cleveland Browns fan win or lose.

As an organ donor to LifeLine, he does leave behind parts of himself that will save lives and will live on in others.

Scott may be gone but he will not be forgotten.

Instead of flowers please help a friend in Scott's name.

Friends may call at the Rutherford-Corbin Funeral Home, 515 High Street, Worthington on Sunday March 13, 2022 from 4:00pm to 6:00pm, where a Memorial Service will be held at 6:00pm.

Previous Events

Visitation

MAR 13. 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM (ET)

Rutherford-Corbin Funeral Home
515 High Street
Worthington, OH 43085
(614) 885-4006
info@rutherfordfuneralhome.com
<https://www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com/>

Funeral Service

MAR 13. 6:00 PM (ET)

Rutherford-Corbin Funeral Home
515 High Street
Worthington, OH 43085
(614) 885-4006
info@rutherfordfuneralhome.com
<https://www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com/>

Tribute Wall

“ Rutherford Funeral Homes created a Tribute Video in memory of Scott Chalfant

Rutherford Funeral Homes - March 10, 2022 at 04:54 PM

DT

Thinking of you Tammy and we're sorry for your loss. Rest in peace Scott.

Denise and Jeff Tuller

Denise and Jeff Tuller - March 12, 2022 at 01:31 PM

JF

No words, no matter how tender, can touch what you're feeling inside. No one can soften the sorrow deep down where your heartaches reside. Still we are thinking about you and hoping it helps in some way simply to know that we care about you and share in your sadness today.

Jim and Billie Anderton Family, Hollywood, Florida

James D. Anderton and Family - March 12, 2022 at 02:25 PM

GJ

We're so sorry for everyone's loss who knew Scott. Scott was a great guy, always with a ready smile. We will forever remember that smile and his stories of being a music concert stager that he told with such zest and love of life! We'll also remember his love for his Grandma and Grandpa Parker, and how he took over maintenance care of the apartments for his Grandma in honor of his Grandpa after he died. It's so sad to lose him so young--he will be missed and always remembered. Love, Grace and Jim

Grace Jenkins - March 12, 2022 at 05:55 PM

JS

Dear Deborah I was so sorry to learn of Scott's passing. It is heartbreaking and I will never know your sorrow but I hope you know how sad I am for you.

May Scott Rest In Peace and see you again some day.

Sincerely

Julie Sagstetter

Julie Sagstetter - December 02, 2022 at 06:00 PM

RS

“ We miss Scott every day. He was such a good friend. I miss his laugh and jokes. He will not be forgotten. I Hope his family is doing well 🙏❤️

Rebecca A Swartz - February 12, 2025 at 10:49 PM

“ Scott Chalfant

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

CA

“ CousinTom- just saw this while working on Ancestry. I just watched the video. Your son was your “mini me”. He looks like he was fun and full of joy. It is unimaginable that he died at such a young age. I wish I had. Known him. My heart is heavy thinking about your loss. I am so very sorry. Cindy

Cinda Lewis Anderton - May 19, 2022 at 08:50 PM

“Psalm 34:18 says “The Lord is close to the broken hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit”.”

Zig Ziglar said, “If there were no love there would be no grief.”

We are here grieving Scott, a man of integrity, compassion, empathy and a heart for his family and friends.

There is a quote that I want to share with you by Nayyirah Waheed. “My mother was my first country, the first place I ever lived.”

Scott all 5lbs 14 1/2 ounces was born in Victorville California. While we were in the hospital, 2 days after he was born, I watched Apollo 11 land on the moon and Neil Armstrong walk on it’s surface. I was reading Lord of the Rings.

God gave us 2 ears and 1 mouth so we could listen twice as much as we speak. Well, God gave Scott 1 ear and 1 mouth, as he was born deaf in one ear. I am not saying he only listened half as much, but boy could he talk!

He did listen and have empathy and compassion and joy for all those that loved him or needed help. He worked hard, played hard, cared hard and loved with all his heart.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2,4 says” There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven: a time to be born and a time to die...a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance.”

And Jeremiah 31;13 says, “Then maidens will dance and be glad, young men and old as well. I will turn their mourning into gladness; I will give them comfort and joy instead of sorrow.”

I never saw Scott dance as an adult, but it makes me smile imagining him dancing with abandonment and joy. I hope you all will dance like no one is watching, except maybe Scott.

And finally, from Ecclesiastes 1, "Everything is meaningless except loving others." So Please love others.

Jeff Craig - March 16, 2022 at 01:32 PM

“ I remember babysitting for Scottie and his sister Tammy. He was always such a sweet cute kid. I'm so sorry for your loss Debbie and Tom.

Brenda Williams Leister - March 12, 2022 at 03:42 PM

“ Memorial Trees was purchased for the family of Scott Chalfant.

March 12, 2022 at 12:56 PM

LF

“ Dear Tom & Deborah:

I spent most of my time with Scott watching OSU football games. Jolly & joyful are the sentiments that come to mind as I remember Scott. It's hard in this day & age to find joy, but, Scott managed to bring it with him into the room. He was extremely intelligent & a pretty deep thinker, even though you might not suspect that on the surface, He stood up for what he believed, and was always prepared to back it up. Scott lived his life courageously, he found what he loved to do and did it; not allowing any social norm to box him into a corner office job that would stress him out for the rest of his life. I envy him his courage and will always remember the joy & laughter that he brought to our lives. I don't believe our spirits are confined to this world & I know that Scott will leave the light on for us. My love & prayers are with all of you as you navigate this darkest nightmare of life.

Linda Fitzsimmons - March 11, 2022 at 09:29 PM