February 21, 1964 - February 18, 2020

Scott M. Renda, age 55 of Powell, passed away unexpectedly on February 18, 2020. He was born in Tonawanda, NY on February 21, 1964 to the late Patrick and Charlotte (Fritz) Renda. Scott is survived by his loving wife of 20 years, Michelle (Crompton) Renda, daughters and son Malori (Josh) Asher, Juliana Renda and Dominic Renda, brother and sister Debbie (Frank) Todarello, Guy (Martha) Renda, brother-in-laws Michael (Leigh) Crompton, Mark (Tamie) Crompton, beloved nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, numerous close cousins and many, many, many loving friends.

Scott graduated from Westland High School, Class of '83 and attended The Ohio State University and received his BS in Business Administration with dual majors in Transportation Logistics and Marketing.

Scott had a dynamic personality, a tender heart and an amazing sense of humor. He never met a stranger and had the ability to make you laugh with him and at him! His happy go lucky nature was infectious and he was the kind of person that you just wanted to be around, he could light up a room. Having 2 cousins pass on the very same day that were friends earlier in life but separated just by miles later in life was quite a shock(Scott Renda & Joseph Oliverio) but I know that the Oliverio/Renda family reunion is going to be mighty in heaven ( Even better than Pinewoods Park!) when all of us get together again..in jesus.... Prayers and condolences to all the family...cousin Tony Renda

“ Dear Renda Family our sympathy and prayers are with you. We thought the would of Scott. No one laughed louder, had more fun, or talked more *&%$^ in our Sunday golf games than Renda, AKA ""Champ"". God Bless You.

“ Scott was the first manager to ever give me a chance. I was a snot nose kid, right out of high school. Very little experience outside of being a team leader at McDonald's throughout high school. I interviewed with him for a customer service job at Railvan working in logistics, $10 an hour(I felt rich back then). He saw something in me and trusted to give me the position. I grew as a professional moving from customer service to logistics coordinator to senior logistics coordinator in a 6 year period. I learned so much about business and that role led to many other opportunities in my career. Had he never given me that shot, who knows if I'd still be making burgers. I'm grateful for the opportunity to know him. The trust he had in me and also for the laughs and lightheartedness he brought to our team. I'm so sad to hear he's passed and am wrapping his family in prayers of comfort. God bless all.

“Michelle: My heart broke when I heard about Scott. Though years have past, my friendship and fondness for Scott have never dwindled. Never once, when thinking of him, did a smile not cross my face. Times spent with Scott were always good times. When around him I was a better person, and because of that, he will forever be a part of my life. Please accept my deepest sympathy. I am so sorry.
