“ Although I haven't met all of the family, working with Sue Tuza (Shannon's Mom) side by side everyday - well, she is family to me (and will be for a long time). There are no words to express my empathy and sadness for Sue, Paul, Phil, Liz, Erin, and the entire family. On the brighter side, Thomas will be a bright light in times of darkness. We celebrated Earth Day at the Boyd School today, and I was honored to share a verse in memory of Shannon. It was from Ecclesiastes 3 versus 1-8. Otherwise know as a song from the Byrds (for the over 50 crowd..). Here it is, in case you don't know: To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill and a time to heal; a time to break down and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose, a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, a time to sew; a time to keep silence and a time to speak; A time to LOVE and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

“ Paul, my daughter Anna was in Erin's class last year, but she got moved to Freedom Trail Elementary this year. Anna has always talked about how good of a friend Erin is and how much she misses her. Erin is welcome at our house at any time. Anna would love to see her again. My family is praying for yours.

“ To Liz and her family: I just wanted to take a minute and send our thoughts and prayers to you and your family in this difficult time. Liz always talked about her beautiful sister, and I see why, both inside and out she is a wonderful woman, wife, mother and sister. I hope you all can find some comfort in each other during this difficult time. I have not known Liz that long, but it took no time to know that Shannon was not only her sister, but her best friend. I am thankful they got to spend the time they did together. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Shannon and I were roommates at Ohio State for a few years and I just wanted to share some memories. I remember her vivacious energy and warmth, her caring and generous spirit, and of course her beautiful smile and infectious laugh. I also remember that during a time when many of us were trying to figure out where we wanted to go in life, Shannon always seemed so confident in her choices and in her faith in God. I regret that we drifted apart after college and that I did not get to know her as a mother and a wife but I can only imagine her as being wonderful at both. Again, I am so sorry for your loss and will be keeping all of you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ First of all, I would like to say how very sorry I am for the loss both you Paul and your family and Shannon's family both are suffering. I can tell from the many condolences that Shannon hasn't changed much since I last spoke to her. I knew Shannon in college and worked with her as a page at the State House. We both grew up Catholic she always did a better job of practicing than I did. I will always remember that big huge smile and the fact that I was willing to be friends with a Cleveland girl even though I am Cincinnati die hard. I once again am very sorry for your loss and you can be assured that Heaven is whole different place now with Shannon there. May God Bless you.

“ Paul, I am heartbroken by the news of your loss. Mom heard that Shannon died of an AFE. My wife suffered an AFE during the delivery of our twins in 2002. Her time in the ICU was the scariest time of my life. I have only the faintest sense of what you must be going through. So grateful that your son is safe. I pray that you will have many opportunities to share with both of your children the wonderful person that I am sure their mother was. May the God of All Comfort be with you now and always. “ Dear Goodburn family, Although not personally knowing Ms. Goodburn or your family, I want to extend my condolences for your loss. It seems that many never take to time to show concern for others during difficult times. It is my hope that you gain strength from the God of comfort that comforts us during our tribulation as mentioned at 2 Corinthians 1:3-4. He soon promises that this evil menace “death” will be no more (Revelation 21:3-4). I hope that your family gains comfort from one another and the promises that we can rely on in God’s Word.

“ Paul, Liz and family, In the short amount of time that I got to know and spend with Shannon I could see the beautiful person, wife and mother that she was. I spent some time yesterday afternoon in the nursery holding and rocking baby Thomas. He is a beautiful little boy. May he bring you a little bit of peace and joy in this dark time. I will never forget all of the love, support and courage that you gave Shannon. May God Bless you all. Out of the shadow of darkness, brings the light of joy.
