“ To Sharon's husband, Paul, her children, and brother Bill,

Sharon and I were best of friends all during elementary school at Nathan Hale in Toledo. We met in second grade and remained close friends through high school at DeVilbiss High School. My maiden name was Bundy and Sharon knew me as Judy Bundy back then.

We shared so many wonderful childhood moments. I will forever hold my memories of her near and dear to my heart.

*My sincere condolences and heartfelt sympathy for your loss,
Judith (Judy Bundy) Rich*

“ Sharon was a beautiful, gracious lady and she was always fun to be around. Although we didn't see her often, we considered her a good friend. We will miss her smile, her sense of humor and her compassion for everyone. Paul, you and your family have our deepest sympathy and we will keep you in our prayers.

“ Sharon is my dad's second wife's daughter's husband's mother. I was only able to interact with her a handful of times. I say these things to show that Sharon could make a deep connection with every person she met (they did not have to be blood relations for her to call them family). I count myself blessed to have entered her circle of compassion, humor, kindness. . Many months went by between my meetings with Sharon, yet as soon as she saw me, she dropped whatever conversation she was engaged in and asked about the personal details of my life we had discussed last time met (perhaps as much as a year before), she had a new (or old but new to me) story that put everyone in stitches. She would ask my new mom (Linda) how I was doing (I live in Chicago) and she would always ask if I would be making it to Christmas Eve. For a single person like me who craves family but lives far from them, it is nice to know that somebody, somewhere cares about me. As soon as I met Sharon I knew I had added someone to that list of people who care about me. I don't understand how she cared so much about and remembered so many details of my life when she must have been in extreme, constant pain. If she made me feel like the most important in the world, I can only imagine how great the loss must be to those of you who were blessed to know her best.
