

Sharon Kay (Peters) Freeman

December 11, 1947 - October 19, 2023

Sharon Kay Freeman (Peters), 75, of Galena, Ohio passed away on October 19, 2023 after bravely battling Alzheimer's. Sharon is survived by her husband Arden Freeman, daughter Melissa Ashley Schiffel (Freeman), Nate (son-in-law), Perri (granddaughter), and Greg Peters (brother).

Sharon was born December 11, 1947 in Coshocton, Ohio to Ruby (Randels) and Merrill Peters. She graduated from Raedel College in Canton, and married her husband Arden Freeman in 1975. Sharon and Arden would have celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary in November of this year. In 1982, Sharon and Arden adopted their beloved daughter Melissa Ashley Schiffel (Freeman). Sharon devoted her time to raising their daughter, and she ensured that traditional family values like eating dinner every night at the dinner table always occurred. Sharon's devotion to her family and her love for her daughter Melissa was known by anyone who met Sharon.

Sharon's proudest professional accomplishment was when she was the personal assistant to author Gay Su Pinnell and Ms. Pinnell's education foundation. In 2015, Sharon met the second love her life, her grand daughter Perri. Even as Alzheimer's stole Sharon's memory, Sharon always knew Perri. In the weeks and months before her death, Sharon always laughed with Perri and gave Perri her biggest smiles during their visits. A private ceremony will be held by the family.

“ I was best friends with Sharon during our teenage years. Spent many days at the Peter's home. Sharon had a real loving family. After high school we lost touch. All she ever really wanted was to marry and raise a family. So glad her dreams came true. So sorry for your lost.
