“ Shawn, life still does not feel the same without you. I wish i could hold ypu one more time you were an amazing boyfriend and beautiful soul. I know we were not living the right way but iv been doing alot better as time goes on i know u would be very proud of me and i really wish we could have experienced being sober together. So many things i wish i would have said and did. You taught me so many lessons and i adore you baby i really really do. I will always remember the good times. We had yesterday would have been our one year anniversary. Ten months was just not enough time with you my love but just know i feel you with me every single day and baby i hope u know i didnt mean one single bad thing iv ever said to u and i wish i could take it back everyday but i know we made up but still i want u so bad baby im hurting but knowing your with me helps so much. Bye for now my first love you were and always will be the best man i ever knew.

“ Terribly sorry for everyones pain. Ive wished it didnt have to be this way. God has plans. I miss the Shawn i used to tell scary stories to and flicker the lights to make it realistic. He was never really scared but I think he had the most fun watching everyone else. His chubby face and ornery smile always laughing and messing with Amanda and I. So much fun, such a cool kid. Prayers for everyone who suffers especially Mark. We love you all.

We love you Mandi. I posted on here but not sure if it went through. So it may show up a couple of times. But, know you're not alone. He would be so proud of you in how well you're doing and living your life. I know this because we are so proud of you too. No words can make this any better. Just know he knew, and he knows how you feel. He knows all sitting up there looking down. We love you and if you need anything, don't hesitate!!
