

Shirley Ann Goodrich

April 24, 2011

Shirley Ann Goodrich, age 75, died Easter Sunday, April 24, 2011. Born in Zanesville, Ohio, May 24, 1935 to Miley B. and Sonora Mae Hellyer, she later moved with her family to Columbus where she graduated from North High School and The Ohio State University in Home Economics. She generously shared her talents as a member of Overbrook Presbyterian Church, where she served many years planning and cooking meals for special events. She also fed the hungry boys of Boy Scout Troop 474 for 38 years. The "old-timers" potlucks continue in perpetuity. She enjoyed crafts, including crocheting, knitting, needlework, sewing, quilting and tole painting. Shirley also served the community with her husband as the owner of Colonial Candy Shoppe where she was active in her Clintonville neighborhood and met customers who would inevitably become life-long friends. She sacrificially cared for her neighbors, friends and family whenever needed. Preceded in death by her loving husband of 38 years, George R. Goodrich; infant daughter, Kimberly Ann; parents, Miley Barnett and Sonora Mae Hellyer; brother, Miley B. Hellyer, Jr. Her love and laughter will be greatly missed by surviving family: daughters, Teri Goodrich, Melissa Goodrich; granddaughter, Kyra Goodrich; new great-grandson, Brayden Goodrich; niece and family, Paige (Warren), Trevor, Adeyilia and Liliana Woodward; cousins, Paul Webster, Mark (Kathy) Webster; brother-in-law, J. David Goodrich. She will also be missed by her customers and friends including "The Ladies of the Night." Friends may call at the SOUTHWICK-GOOD & FORTKAMP

FUNERAL CHAPEL, 3100 N. High St. on Thursday, 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.
Memorial Service will be held 11 a.m. on Friday at Overbrook Presbyterian Church, 4131 N. High St. Graveside service and inurnment at 1:30 p.m. at Union Cemetery. Rev. Michael Ludwig officiating. In lieu of flowers, contributions, if desired may be made to Overbrook Presbyterian Church. www.southwickfuneral.com