“ Show Mei Zimmerman

“ • What a wonderful vacation our family had with the Zimmerman family at a lake in the backwoods of Ontario, Canada. We had a cabin with 3 bedrooms -- we bedded the kids (Lee, Fawn, our daughter, son, and twin boys) in one. We had a toilet that the kids were afraid of because it made a grinding noise when it flushed, besides it was always overflowing. We had mosquitos and biting flies, and no hot water. Don and Dave would take the kids in the rowboat on the lake to fish. Mei and I would cook dinner and then boil water to do dishes. After we put the kids to bed we would play cards into the wee hours of the morning. Even in this wilderness Mei found a place to play bingo! We had nothing but we had everything.

“ My wife and I cherished our card games with Don and Mei and other friends. We played canasta and euchre. The men always played against the women. When the men won Don would say “Once again Science and Education has triumphed over Ignorance and Superstition!” They both had such a wonderful sense of humor. I also enjoyed working for them at their home and shop. They had such interesting challenges for me. Mei would force me to take a break for lunch. She made the most delicious toasted ham sandwiches I have ever tasted. While eating or working, we had great discussions on religion, philosophy, life, and relationships. Time and again we concluded that our lives were blessed. Mei was one of the wisest people I have ever known.

“ She was my mentor and dear friend. I thank God I was able to share with her recently what a positive influence and blessing she was to me. She was a gem! Fawn and Lee, I am so sorry for your tremendous loss and sorry I cannot be there to help celebrate her life because I am out of state. You are all in my prayers.

“ Mei was a beautiful woman inside and out. I first met her probably 15 or 20 years ago, when she ran her beauty salon at her home. I always enjoyed talking with her and getting to know her during those hair cuts. Occasionally I got to see Donald, and heard stories about her kids, too. Mei was always helping people, and worked very hard to improve herself, so she could do more. She was a very smart woman. I admired her. Mei also shared her faith with her friends and customers. She encouraged me to come to church and sit with her at Central College. Any of us could find her in the back row for the 11:00 service. She wanted to make sure I would have a seat and see a friendly face. It meant a lot to me that she always made sure her church friends knew each other. Mei loved Central College and God. She truly was a positive force in my life, I am sure she is very happy in heaven now!

I was blessed to know Mei for many years as a sister-in-Christ. She was a great prayer warrior for others and joyful witness to everyone within our family of faith at Central College Church and everyone she came in contact with in her daily life. She has surely received a royal welcome by her beloved Savior as one of His most faithful servants. We will continue prayers for your dear family..until we meet again.

“ Dearest Show Mei, our lovely and beautiful sister, even though you have gone to our LORD's house, we still believe you can hear us, hear our phone call, hear our calling and know how much we miss you, I have to stop my tears right now in order to continue our memory about you. You are so elegant and so generous to every one (family, friends or strangers), no matter what happen to you, you will fulfill other people's need first. You really deserve God's love. We should be happy you can join your beloved husband now, we never have chance to meet your husband, but from your expression, in our mind, your husband endless love to you will continue hugging you. we pray to God to welcome you into his open arms, we miss you forever.
