“ I’m so thankful to have been known little Silas. His smile was contagious! I’ve never seen a more happy little boy. Nichole the pics you’ve posted of him through his life show how much he was loved. All the carnivals, bowling, sledding, working on his toy cars like his daddy, seeing the fireworks, playing with the dogs, trick or treating, family cookouts etc. His love for life will never be forgotten and he was so lucky to have you both for parents. I know without a doubt Zon is showing him all around Heaven and teaching him about football. Love you both.

“ Silas the greatest day of our lives was being there when you came into this world. You had the best parents (who had showed you so much in 3 years). I've never met a little boy who loved life so much. You have taught all of the people that you ever met how to really live our lives. If it is raining we should put on our boots and totally enjoy the puddles. I loved walking around the block with you cause you would be in every single puddle. I'm going to miss you walking in to the house and you going after popsicles or ice cream bars. Thank so much baby for blessing our lives. Bentlee is going to be so proud that he has a beautiful angel in heaven that is a part of him. Watch over your mommy and daddy and baby brother. We all love you very much.

“ Though we never met you little cousin, we love seeing pictures of your smiling face and would have loved to meet you face to face. Jesus; however, decided to call you home sooner, or maybe you saw the beautiful glimpse of heaven where we are all trying to get and decided to go where there is no more crying, no more pain, and no more sorrow. I know you will be missed here on this earth, but in time for those who love the Lord you will be reunited with your family again and what a fantastic reunion that will be!!!

“ Even though I've never met you, just seeing all the smiling pictures your mommy and daddy would share of you would always bring a smile to my face, even on my saddest days. May you spend your days wrapped in the loving arms of our Lord. Your smiling face will be missed sweet boy.
