“ Thank you Wayne for always being so kind. You were always so patient when I would test your knowledge of music. So gifted. Your face lit up when you talked of music and family. 2 beyond beautiful daughters and a son that carried on your talent. You were a proud Pops.

Go rest high. Rejoice. And prepare a place for us. I would walk up and say "Ya done good ol man", and you would just give that big ol warm smile.

Give Rhonda a big hug for me.

“ I have many fond memories of Wayne, his music and his friendly personality. When my wife and I were first married we always would go to hear Wayne perform with the great Mickey Wilson Trio. I always marveled at Wayne’s guitar playing and his excellent voice and singing harmonies. Wayne always sang a special song for us, “Since I Met You Baby”. In later years I was able to perform with Wayne when he played piano in his own band. I will always cherish the memories of my friend Wayne. Now as Wayne steps on the Heavenly stage to perform the music and singing is much sweeter now in God’s band.
