“ We are saddened this day to lose such a wonderful grandmother and friend but we are thankful for all the years we with you. You have used many methods to teach us the ways for the Lord. Your virtuous life has transcended several generations and culture changes. You have been a rock for the message of Christ and a true example for all to follow. You will be missed here on this earth but we look forward to spending eternity with you one day! Love your one of many grandchildren, Cory

“ Dear Gary and Janet and Family, Please accept our condolences in the passing of your mother, Stella. I felt privileged to meet her on the occasion of Gary's receiving the Gale and Harriette Ritz Chair. She was so proud of him! She impressed me as truly being a Proverbs 31 woman: "Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her the reward she has earned, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate." (Proverbs 31: 30-31 NIV) I am confident that Stella is receiving her praise in the heavenly city of God. May the Lord be with all of you as you grieve her loss. Love and Blessings, Jim and Linda Davison

The blessing of Yahweh be with you and your family as you release Stella to abide in the tabernacle of the Lord forever and trust in His provision (Psalm 61:4). Shalom, John & Lois Nissley
