“ I was saddened to read about Steve's death in the UC Law Alumni magazine last week. I didn't know Steve well, but I do remember him from law school because he always seemed so friendly and good-natured, which you don't always find among law students; I wish I'd gotten to know him better. I still remember being in Corporations class with him ...the professor mentioned a particular surplus in the corporate accounting discussion, and Steve raised his hand and asked what the surplus was called. The professor replied, "Well, I don't think it has a name, but we can call it 'the Cianca Surplus.'" I still laugh about that.

“ To: Cianca family
I worked with Steve for many years in his capacity as CLE Director at the OSBA. I looked forward to seeing him on my annual trip to Columbus to speak at a CLE event. He was a joy to work with and I am very saddened to think he will not be there the next time I return. May God bless you in your time of mourning

“ I worked with Steve while organizing CLE events through OSBA. He was a pleasure to speak with and a gentleman. I can recall him sharing his involvement with Boy Scouts even during our limited conversations and his love for his family was a pleasure to hear. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ To the Cianca family,
Please accept our heartfelt condolences with Steve's passing. I always looked forward to hearing Steve's insightful reflections as we read from scripture at the Saturday morning Men's Sprituality Group. May he walk into a region of peace and light united in fellowship with Christ our Lord. Peace be yours.

*Sincerely,
Ken Leitch and family*
