Steve was a kind and charismatic person, and was often the cause for a good time. He was a very loving father, and had a great love for his family & friends, as there were many. Steve had a passion for Ohio State football and basketball, and was begrudgingly a Cleveland sports enthusiast. Often available for a good meal, was sometimes opinionated, and had an old fashioned sensibility. He will be missed dearly by all who knew him. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Spirit of Nursing at Riverside Hospital in his memory. Arrangements by Rutherford-Corbin Funeral Home.

“ You always knew Steve was in a room when you walked in; his distinctive laugh and bright smile were contagious. There was always a big hug waiting for you and no matter how his life or day were going, he usually gave you a thumbs-up. Steve could be warm and compassionate; but, I loved his wit and sarcasm, which he generously shared. Steve loved his children, family and friends and was a loyal protector and advocate. Holly, Zachary and Ashley; I and my family were blessed to know Steve and to get to share the good times with all of you. May God bless you as you navigate these troubled waters and grant you the resolve, strength, peace and comfort that only He can. You stay in our hearts and prayers. Love, Linda Fitzsimmons

“ My deepest condolences to Steve's children, which he spoke of often. Steve was an amazing man. He was so happy and smiley no matter what the situation. He always had a smile on his face and a hugging heart. I'm so sorry life has been too busy to get out lately but our talks will last a lifetime. In the arms of an angel...may he find some comfort there. XO CRH Cleveland rocks!

“ God bless you all on the loss of your Dad, brother and uncle. I've known him since we were very young and grew up together from St. Felicitas to St. Ignatius and Ohio State. He was a great guy and a good man. You are all in my prayers in this difficult time.
