“ Please accept our heartfelt condolences on the passing of our dear friend ~ Susie was a huge part of an active online community of like-minded folks who love needlework...Susie's talented hands created many many beautiful projects that were her own, and from other designers she loved. I am fortunate to have known her, albeit never met in person, but loved muchly still. Susie: I hope you have your needles and thread with you! We love you and you will be missed my friend 💜🧐🙏🌟
