“ Bill, Tom, Troy and families,

I first met Sue at Wittenberg during her freshman year, 1947-48. Sue and my wife, Shirley, were roommates and sorority sisters. We always stayed in touch with Sue and T as our lives and locations changed. I think we enjoyed our winter time together in Port Aransas, TX, the most. I bet T and I walked 200 miles on the beach while the girls sunbathed.

We lost touch with Sue when she moved from Urbana and we couldn't find a phone number for her.

I still hear from Jenny Cline occasionally. She is the only member of the two old friends I know is still living.

Shirley died 06/13/2018 at aged 89.

My thoughts are with you all. I will miss Sue.
