“ *Dear Larry, Barb and Mollie,
I am so sorry to learn of your mother's passing, my godmother. She was so generous with her yearly birthday and Christmas gifts for me year after year growing up in Upper Arlington. I will never forget how special it made me feel being one of seven children. I had wanted to get in touch with her for the last several years but never quite was able to do it. I'm very sorry I did not get a chance to reconnect with her before her passing. My father Ted Saker died this past May at age 93 so we are all busy taking care of my mom these days.*

*Wishing you peace and sincerest condolences as you grieve your loss,

“ What a beautiful woman your Mom and Grandmama was! We are blessed to have been able to share in such a special part of her life. Now the Duquesne Elders are all together enjoying that eternal day at the Lake. She loved you all and her life, dearly and that will make this loss softer as the memories remain strong.

*You are all forever in our prayers,
Tish and Chuck ad all the Laufersweiler-Baumann Family*
