“ Suzzi, my special friend. I will miss your zealous love for God and Our Blessed Mother. Thank-you for your boldness in faithfully speaking truth even when it was tough to hear. I suspect that you are now dwelling in a special room in heaven covered with pink! Please pray for all of us until we are united again. I'll be remembering you and your entire family in my prayers. God's peace. Congratulations, you won the race.

“ I will miss Suzanne's Visits, her Phone calls. I enjoyed talking to Matthew and getting to know him. Suzzi was so proud of her Grandchildren. She loved her Children, her Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and most of all she loved her Church and worship. I send my love to Chris, Danny, Rickey, & Brother Richard. I will continue to Pray for Gods Blessings upon her Children. Aunt Carol

“ Dear Children and Grandchildren of Suzzi, We all loved her and were inspired by her faith. We know how much you will miss her because we will too. Suzzi Firestone told it like it is and that included how she felt about God. She inspired people by her openness about her love for Jesus and Mary and it is comforting to know that she is now with them. With heartfelt sympathy and wishing you Christ's peace and love.
