“ I have great memories of Aunt Sam. We weren't able to get together as often as we would like due to the distance apart, but when we did, I remember her sweet spirit. She was always gentle and understanding with much laughter. She will be truly missed. I pray for Phillip, Bridget, Michele and Christine to have peace during this difficult time. It is difficult to lose your mother, even though we know she is full of joy and is reunited with Uncle Ed. Sending my love (and my Dad's) from Florida.

Love,

Lisa and Richard

“ I feel truly blessed to have known Sylvia. She was the epitome of a true servant to our Lord. She always had a smile and a kind word. We should all aspire to be half that good. I know she is at peace and with Jesus. I look forward to seeing her again!

“ I've only known Sylvia for a little over 2 years, but she has had a huge impact on my life. Having a women's Bible study with her is a true gift. She has such a desire to know Jesus so deeply and to know God's Word and God's Will. She will be so very missed here on this side of Heaven. However, I cannot wait to see her up there meeting and greeting all those she has read about for so long. I'd say RIP my dear friend, but I know you are already at Peace and I know you're not resting because you're so excited to be reunited with those who went before you and to meet all those people we've been studying about. God speed!

“Dearest Sylvia, you were a great friend to us for over 30 years. Your Bible knowledge, your wisdom, and your unassuming ways meant so much to us. You counseled me without judgment. You are missed by all who knew you. Now you are at peace in the loving arms of Jesus where you have joined your sweet husband, Ed. We love you, Del and Darlene

*I met Sylvia a year and a half ago when I came to Dwell. We connected because she and my Mom were nurses. And they shared a birthday! We did the snack team together last year and also did some visitations together. I really enjoyed her Bible study time. Several of us would gather for a meal and then move to the family room to view a teaching video and then talk about the message. Her love for the Lord was evident in all that she did!
I miss you Sylvia but I know you are with your loved ones and with the Lord!!! And I look forward to seeing you again later.
Love, Gayle*

Darlene, I know she loved your friendship too. All of the people in her home church gave her great joy and purpose in this life. She will be missed by all who knew her.
