“ Terry was my first Brother-in-law. At 10 or 11 years old he made a great brotherly impression on me. Many of those memories come flooding back. There are too many to mention here, but let's say her gave me things a boy should have. My first knife for example along with a promis to be safe.

Another thing was how he was able to put my Mom in her place. This was all in fun and banter to them, but as a young kid watching.... Hero! He knew what he knew and stood his ground.

Oh yeah! I remember Terry and my Sister taking me on date with them. To the drive in no less. The movie, Big Jake. At North High drive in. I remember he rolled my arm up in the window and I didn't say anything. Too scared. Lol.

Life took its turns, Jennell was born and boom I'm an Uncle. I had no idea how to be an Uncle at 12 or so, nor do I really now. All I know is that Terry would have been a great example. I remember him as a fun loving, caring, funny, loud, and all around good guy. I'm sure there was another side, but to me he was a big brother. Always will be.

“ I am so sorry for this sad loss to the family. Terry was a thoughtful mentor to me during our years of working together. I'm so happy to say that out of that work relationship, in our retirement years, a true friendship grew. I came to know him as a kind and caring friend. I will miss sharing stories of our grandchildren and our shared political views!
