

Theresa A Hrabley

May 7, 1961 - October 15, 2024

Theresa A. Hrabley, age 63, of Columbus, OH, died suddenly and unexpectedly of natural causes at home on Tuesday, October 15, 2024. She studied at the Columbus College of Art and Design. She was a talented multidisciplinary artist, enjoyed music and movies, and also worked at the Hyatt Regency in downtown Columbus for many years. Theresa is preceded in death by parents Andrew and Catherine Hrabley. She is survived by her brother James Hrabley of Columbus, OH; sister Kathleen Kersell of Annapolis, MD; niece Erin (Jonathan) Macri and grandnephews Domenic and Issac Macri of Owings, MD; nephew Brent (Stephanie) Kersell of Virginia Beach, VA; and other aunts and cousins. Member of St. Catherine Roman Catholic Church. A funeral mass to honor her memory will be held on Friday, December 6, 2024, at 10:30 a.m. at St. Catherine Roman Catholic Church, 500 South Gould Road, Columbus. A burial at sea ceremony will be held off the coast of Virginia Beach, VA, where she wanted to visit and see the ocean.

Tribute Wall

LS

“ Theresa also had a great passion for fireworks and lighting up the sky! She came to my home often to share her talent in safely discharging fireworks and lighting up our skys! She was an amazing person and so talented! I have known her for almost 20 years. I miss her so much! Love you Theresa! Lynn Sprague

Lynn E Sprague - November 22, 2024 at 10:23 AM