“ This is so late because I moved from Brecksville in 1972. Tom was a wonderful person. As high school freshmen, we acted together in plays, we did music in my garage, and mostly he was a close confidant and a gentleman. I am honored to have known him and I hold that memory.

“ My deepest sympathies to the Lodge family. Tom was a consummate gentleman, advocate, lawyer and mentor. I've known Tom for many years and had the pleasure of sharing his company two years ago when he visited Washington, D.C. when he was kind enough to catch me up on news in Columbus. His illness did not diminish his class, character or humor. Tom remains an inspiration to us all and I am lucky to have known him. All my best to the Lodge family.

“ I was so shocked and dismayed to learn of Tom's death, but I have many wonderful memories of Tom in both Thespians and class. He was a true joy to work with and direct. As a teacher and drama director, I was able to know Tom both as a student and as a friend. I will never forget the time he and Bob Gerseny came to my house for dinner-they were graduating seniors and had brought with them 2 trophies, one for me and one for my husband. He and Bob were quite a pair. My deepest sympathy goes out to you and family. My words can never express the sense of loss I feel.

“ Looking back, I see images of shared times with Tom that touched, and stay in our memory like pictures in a photo album. Memories of Tim & Tom in Brecksville, discussing the world over endless cups of coffee at Manner's restaurant; the fun of local little theater productions; Tom's drum solo at our wedding; shared stories of amazement and respect for our children who have become such incredible people. Small things which stand large in memory, such as Tom's wit, his intelligent insight, all will be remembered, along with his joy in everyday things: in each day, his love for you, Joan, and the satisfaction he had with his job and his clients, his joy in John and Sarah's journeys through their lives, and the playful indulgence of the dogs. His touch on our lives will be greatly missed.

He made an impact on this world, to the very end with his unselfish support of Peletonia and mentoring of others with cancer. He will be missed by many. “Joan, John and Sarah, I was one of the fortunate people here at Thompson Hine to have known Tom for quite a number of years. You could always count on Tom to have a smile on his face and a kind word when you encountered him in the hallway during a normal workday. And, I will always remember the one Christmas that Tom played drums at our annual Christmas party. He was really cool and very good I might add. Tom was a wonderful person and will be missed dearly here at Thompson Hine.

“ A farewell letter to my good friend Tom Lodge: Dear Tom, I am so glad to have had the good fortune to have met you, worked with you, and learned from you. You earned my respect very early on when, as often was the case, we in the Telecom Industry did not particularly agree with the actions of our good friends at the PUCO and you were there working in our corner. I remember thinking, wow this guy really knows how to “explain” to them in no uncertain terms where and how often they erred in judgment! Just writing that sentence brings a smile to my face as we always knew we could count on you to set the record straight, at least from our point of view. You were certainly the right guy to have on our case, case after case, yet your tenacious no holds barred approach to your work was in sharp contrast to your overall demeanor as you were one of the most down to earth, friendly persons to get to know. Tom, I have many fond memories of our working or simply enjoying a sidebar discussion together. You were truly a great man and role model and I am a better person because of having known you. Farewell Tom! My wife Linda and I extend our heartfelt condolence to the Lodge family. God’s Blessings, Eric and Linda Damman

“ From crazy summer days on the Playwagon to MYF doings, to Brecksville High Thespians, to the NYC road trip--Tom was a great buddy and a ton of fun for all of us lucky to be around him. Brilliant wit, infectious laughter, reliable friend. My heart goes out to all the family. Bonnie Milne Gardner

“ As one of Tom's senior colleagues at Thompson Hine, I was one of his early mentors. It became clear to everyone at TH from the outset of his legal career that he was a man of great talent and intellect. Tom worked diligently until the end of his life to make the most of these gifts. More importantly, Tom never took an ethical shortcut in anything he did. A consummate professional, he had the respect of all. But he was much more than a great lawyer. He was a loyal and good friend; a funny humorist of dry wit; a pretty fair drummer and 1970's style vocalist; and a proud and devoted father and husband. Joan, John, and Sarah: I realize your loss is overwhelming. Take comfort in the prayers and good wishes everyone is sending your way as they are heartfelt. Tom was a difference maker in the lives of all he encountered.
