“ In all of the years I knew Tom I cannot recall a single time when he said an unkind word about anyone. Tom was truly one of the nicest people I've ever met. I am deeply saddened by his passing.

“ My sincere condolences go to Deborah and all the family of Tom Whitehead. He was a wonderful person and a true friend. His laughter was infectious and his smile was genuine, as well as his heart. If asked to help someone you could always count on Tom to help those less fortunate. He was a true gentle giant. My love and friendship will always be with him, as my thoughts and prayers are with Deborah and his family. May peace be with you all. Debra C. Mathias
