He was a well-known bartender for many years in Elyria & had a following of customers that enjoyed his great personality & joke telling. He liked singing bass in an Elyria barbershop quartet for a number of years & loved listening to classic rock. He was an avid fan of the Cleveland Guardians & Browns, OSU football & NASCAR. He enjoyed gardening & watching the birds & especially the hummingbirds in the feeders on the deck.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Diane (Nee: Fesler), sister, Cindy (Greg), brothers-in-law, Ken (Heather), Scott (Donna) & Jeff, Aunt Gladys & nieces, nephews, cousins & their children & many great friends that all loved his kind nature & sense of humor.

“ Fly high Angel! Everytime I see a humming bird I will see your face & smile. I'll remember the laughs & love that always surrounded you. I will miss your fantastic "bloody marys" & most of all your sunny disposition. You fought a courageous battle with so much dignity & of course with the help of your "Lady Di." I love you Tim & will keep you in my heart always. Fly high my friend, until we meet again. RIP!!

“ I met Tim through the Mowery family and my sisters 20+ years ago. I've never met a sweeter man. His wife Diane was his everything. At last he is pain free but he was taken far too soon. Nick and I and our families will cherish his memory forever. Shirley and Nick Mowery

“ Tim Court was one of the kindness souls God ever created. He always a smile on his face and made sure everyone did also. I had the pleasure of working with him and he taught me so much, how to bartend for one but also to enjoy every moment. Always made me laugh and oh what a voice he had was beautiful. I will always remember the hugs, laughs and memories of him. Thank you Tim you will be missed and in my heart forever. Fly high and sing with the Angels ❤️
