“ To Tim's Family - Allow me to express my deepest sympathy at Tim's passing. I am part of Tim's MBOE clas at Ohio State, and was stunned when I learned the news. Although, I knew Tim only a short while - 2 weeks of class - I feel like I have lost a long time friend. It seemed like I was able to relate with him from the first day. His friendly enthusiasm and clear insights brought a true spot of brightness to our class discussions. If I miss him after such a short acquaintance, it must be so much more of a loss for you who had the good fortune to live and grow with him. I do trust though that he leaves a legacy of bringing joy and brightness to the lives of others. He was quite a guy. Sincerely, Jerry Dassler

“ Dear Mrs. Howard, Elizabeth, and especially Greg: My heart goes out to you at this difficult time of loss. Many students in our Scioto family asked me to convey their messages of concern and friendship to all of you. I am so glad that I got to meet Mr. Howard last fall. His pride and love for you were very obvious, Greg. There is no doubt that he would be very sorry to have to leave you so soon, but he gave you many gifts and strengths that will help you grow through the years to come. I believe that you will carry his love and wisdom with you throughout every day of your life. Please know that all of your Scioto teachers, counselors, and friends will do all we can to help you. I am always available in C-9 or just a phone call or email away. We will remember, and we will stand with you as you move one step at a time through the days ahead. May God's promises give you comfort and hope. With love, Mrs. Sayre

“ Dear Mary, Greg and Elizabeth I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your beloved husband and father. Although I never had an opportunity to meet Tim, I know he was an amazing man from knowing you Mary and from knowing the son he raised. Greg, you are the most respectful, polite, and handsome young man I have ever met. I am sure your father never wanted to leave you so soon, but he has left behind an honorable young man to carry on his legacy. My family and I pray that the pain in your hearts will soon be replaced by happy memories of your Dad and husband. Love, Cheryl, Marty, Michael, Andrew and Austin Luxeder

“ Mary,Elizabeth and Greg, I am so very, very sorry for your loss. I never met Greg's father, but I lost my own father suddenly and I know that excruciating shock and pain. Greg, you are such a wonderful, smart, sensitive young man that I bet I am seeing huge parts of your father reflected in you which tells me he was an incredible man. This hurts so much because he was so very special to you all.Greg, IF there is any time I can help in any way or you want a moment to escape the noise of the classroom PLEASE ask. My prayers for peace are with you all. Terril Weber

“ Mary, Greg and Liz, We are so deeply saddened by the news of Tim's passing. I have known Tim since we started our scouting adventures with troop 117 several years ago but in that time I came to know a man that deeply loved his family and was so selfless in the time, energy and devotion he gave to the troop. I want you all to know that we will keep you in our daily prayers. Please know that if there is ever anything I can do for any of you, please do not hesitate to call me. I know that Tim would do the same for me and my family so we are all here for you. May God Bless you and give you peace in this most difficult time.

“ Mary, I would really like to convey my condolences to you and the Howard Family on the loss of your husband, Timmy. Perhaps he didn't go by the name Timmy and used a more grown up name like Tim in his adult life but he was one of my closest childhood friends and he was Timmy then. I lived on North French Avenue as did the Howard Family. Timmy and I went to grammar school together and were members of a gang of friends that included his cousin, Joey Hennessy, and Tommy Dittmar. I was the tomboy of the gang who started the “I Hate Girls” club in fourth grade and Timmy was a card carrying member of the club. We used to entertain ourselves by playing war, kickball, underleg, football, and by building forts in empty lots or walking along the train tracks to the Tarrytown Lakes. We also loved to do “I dare you” games – like “I dare you to drink water from a pool of water left from the rain on the street”. Timmy played in all of these games and he had a great, happy childhood. Timmy, the Howard Family and the Gallagher Family have been connected for as long as I can remember. My husband and I had Timmy's mom, Mrs. Catherine Howard, to our home for dinner on several occasions. I can't tell you how much we enjoyed hearing her stories about your family and all her children and grandchildren. I recognize that you, your children and the Howard Family have lost so much this week and I am truly sorry for your loss. Ellen Gallagher Zimkin
