“ I was sorry to hear of Tom's death. Hw was the first Polish-born CAS employee I met when I was newly hired. I also am a Polish immigrant. He helped me in many ways when I moved to Columbus in 1989 and in the years that followed. I will remember Tom as a good friend and co-worker.

“ I was very surprised and sorry to hear of Tom's passing. I worked with Tom for a number of years at the CAS Help Desk. He was an interesting and enjoyable person who always had a great sense of humor. It still brings a smile to my face thinking about many of our conversations over the years we worked together. I still use Tom's recepie for cooking swiss chard whenever my wife and I harvest ours from the garden. Please accept my sympathies. Tom will definitely be missed.

“ Dear Amy, It was with great shock and sadness that we read of the death of your husband and our old friend, Tom, on Saturday. Although Tom slipped out of our lives he was never far from our thoughts and we always hoped and prayed he would find happiness and peace. I, Chris, was employed with him at Chemical Abstracts when he worked there as an editor/analyst. I began CAS in 1990 and he was one of my first trainers. I respected his deep knowledge of the subject and his ability to help me to negotiate the ropes of the company. I will be forever grateful to him for this. I, Cindy, had the opportunity to get to know Tom, ever so slightly, through Chris and appreciated his deeply philosophical, albeit cynical, heart and spirit. We knew he had health issues because Chris often took him to his appointments, five years ago, at Riverside. Being the deeply private man that he was, he never shared any of the details of his struggles and we never pried. But our awareness of this aspect of his life, coupled with Tom's alluding to the fact that he was living on borrowed time, prompted us to think of him often and puzzle over what had become of him and how he might be progressing. Before he met you, he asked me, Cindy, if I would be willing to carry his ashes to Indonesia of all places. A very strange request. I never knew if he was serious or testing to see if I cared enough to do this favor for him. It was our experience that we often had trouble getting a read on Tom. He was one of the most enigmatic people we have ever met. We did not know he had remarried or had a son. Although we've never met, please accept our deepest sympathies for your loss. We pray that both you and Tom find a peace that passes all understanding. Very sincerely, Cindy and Chris Kuhn 962 Ridenour Rd Gahanna, OH 43230 614-471-9358
