

Tristan Howarth

January 26, 1970 - September 27, 2025

Tristan Adele Howarth, 55, of Worthington, passed away peacefully on September 27, 2025, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Born on January 26, 1970, in Toledo, Ohio, Tristan was the beloved daughter of the late Louis J. Howarth and Shalmir A. Howarth. She attended Malabar High School and grew up with a vibrant spirit and a gift for connecting with others, qualities that carried into her lifelong career as a hairstylist. For more than 35 years, Tristan proudly served the Clintonville community, where her clients became friends and her salon chair was a place of comfort, laughter, and encouragement.

Tristan's greatest joy in life was her children. She is survived by her loving children, Deven B. Howarth-Green and Dalton E. Howarth-Green; her precious dog, Loki; her mother, Shalmir W. Howarth; her stepmother, Harriet Howarth; and her brother, Tim (Cathy) Howarth. She also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and dear friends who were family to her, all of whom will remember her warmth, generosity, and unwavering strength.

She was preceded in death by her partner in life, Mark E. Green; her father, L. Joseph Howarth; and her stepfather, Donald Kehler.

Tristan will be remembered for her creativity, her resilience, and her ability to light up a room with her laugh. She touched countless lives and leaves behind a legacy of kindness, beauty, and love.

Visitation will be held at Rutherford-Corbin Funeral Home, 515 High St., Worthington, OH 43085, on Sunday, October 12, 2025, from 2–4 p.m., immediately followed by a memorial service at 4 p.m.

“Tristan you were so special to my family! When Anne “pawned” me off to her for things she didn’t want to do 😊 she was an instant friend! She gave me advice about being a good mom (not even knowing she was by just being her). My son (aka Angel) adored her and made time for her when he was back in Columbus. She offered to help with my daughter’s hair in all those phases (and colors) Tristan even cut my mom’s hair while I was very sick in the hospital! I had very meaningful conversations about life in that chair (and the back room)
I miss her. I loved her. I am thankful she was in our life.

“ My dear friend and hairstylist for 35 years. I just returned from my summer of sailing to learn that dear Tristan is gone from us. My heart is broken but I know she rests peacefully in the loving arms of our Savior, Jesus. My heart goes out to Devon and Dalton and her family. You are all in my prayers.

Tristan was a friend and the best hairdresser ever. She was always talking about her children whom she treasured and was a great mother to them. She could lift your spirits and was a very sincere person. Her humor and kind spirit will be missed.

Tristin has done my nails, hair, and pedicures for over 25 years. She shared her talents with several of my friends, 2 of my sister-in-laws, my daughter and her entire family. WE all loved her so much! She was kind, sincere, friendly, and fun to be around! She loved a good joke and we will miss her laughter! Since hearing of her death, I have thought about her everyday! She definitely made an impression on those who knew and loved her! Our friendship will always be cherished! I will continue to pray for Devon and Dalton. She loved you both so much. May the peace of our Lord Jesus be with you both!

“ My deepest condolences to Tristin’s children, her mom, and everyone who loved her.

Tristin’s presence was truly a gift, and her absence is deeply felt. But her love, strength, and laughter live on in all of us who were lucky enough to know her.

She was my beautiful, bubbly, smiley friend, always so positive, even in hard times. Her humor and laugh were absolutely contagious, just being around her could lift anyone’s spirit. I will miss everything about her, even the smallest things, like her texts filled with emojis and fun social media video finds.

Tristin was a true warrior, facing life’s challenges with grace and resilience that inspired everyone who knew her. With a broken heart, I will miss her every day.

Wishing everyone love, peace, and strength during this heartbreaking time.

My friend and hairstylist. So very funny and kind. She always had such humorous stories about her beloved children Dalton and Devin. She was such a devoted mother. It was obvious that being their mother was her most important thing in her life. God bless you Tristan

“ I remembered when we would visit, Tristen was always kind to us. Fun spirit, loving heart.
Tristan always considered Darrin and myself as family and made us feel welcome when we were hanging out.
Gone but forever in our hearts!
Darrin and Sam I know are in heaven hanging out with their “sister”.
Love and prayers.

“Tristan was always smiling and cheerful when she did my hair, always ready to listen while using her expertise to make my hair look great. Going to get my hair cut with her was something I looked forward to because it was like visiting a friend. She will be so missed by myself and so many others.

Tristan was a talented hairdresser. I valued her opinion and suggestions. I enjoyed my early morning appts with her. We had an opportunity to talk and laugh before the day became busy. Miss you so much. Taken much too soon. Rest in Peace

PS

My deepest condolences to Tristan's children and family. I was a client of Tristan's for 32 years and considered her a dear friend. She always had a smile on her face and I always looked forward to seeing her and our conversations. She was a talented hairdresser but more importantly a kind and sweet woman. I was deeply saddened to hear of her passing and will miss her presence in my life. My thoughts and heartfelt prayers are with her children and family. May memories of Tristan be of comfort to you through this difficult time. 🙏❤️

All I have thought about and worried for months was Tristan. She would always say she was ok. I have been going to her for many years, even, way before her children were born. I always admired her strength in everything she did, let alone fight her illness. She would always say she was fine and my husband and I would marvel at her work ethic. She was tuff and my husband would sometimes, almost always, call at the last minute to get his hair trimmed and he would just say, get rid of whomever is in your chair, and I will be right over, then they would both just laugh and laugh. I truly can't believe she is gone as she was such a pillar of strength all the way to the very end. I hope someday her mom and children and many dear friends can find comfort in having known and loved her. I will miss her dearly. Lynn Stumpf

My deepest condolences to Tristan's children who were first and foremost in her life. It was my honor to be her coworker and in the end. I will still call it a coworker at The Hair Raizers. There is no replacement and there is barely moving forward. Just know that her laugh Gets me through most days still yet. It is very hard for us to walk forward, but I keep hearing her in my head, saying things that I can't print here. My love to her family.
