“ Troy was always very positive... no matter what. He was one of those people that you would always make time to talk to because you knew he would have something positive to say. When things weren't going so well, he could always bring you back to earth and make you realize how much you had to be thankful for. He was never too busy for anyone and was always willing to share. He was truly a bright spot and will be missed.

“ We were so sorry to hear of the loss of Troy Lee. We remember him so well as a young boy growing up and then becoming a young man. He will be sadly missed by all of his family. To his children, brothers and wife, even though we can't be with you during this very sad time, know that we are keeping you very close in our hearts and that we pray daily for the Lord to give you peace and comfort.

“ Troy was an inspiration to a lot of people. He touched our lives in ways we can't even explain. There are very few people in this world who are genuine. I had a lot of respect for Troy. He was a very good man! He was always there to listen and give advice. If I was having a bad day I could always go talk to Troy and leave feeling very positive and a better person. He had a great way of bringing things into perspective. I feel blessed to have been friends with such a great person. He made a huge impact on all of our lives and will be greatly missed. My prayers go out to the family and friends of Troy

“ I find it difficult to express what I want to say about my friend Troy. He has always been the person to go. When all was chaotic, he was the person who could bring you back to ground. When you needed someone in your corner he was always the first to help. As a co-worker he was a joy, as friend he is irreplaceable, and as a person he will never be forgotten by any he touched.

“ To the family of Troy Evans: Troy was a very special person who I was proud to call my friend . Troy and I were founding members of the First Responders and later the E.M.T. teams at Anhuser Busch Brewery. Troy was a very loving and giving person who always gave 110 percent of himself. He may be gone but he will never be forgotten. He is at gods side now and at peace. Ed Isel (gdrummerboy)

“ Troy, we already feel so lost without your cheerful face and kindness around the neighborhood. I will miss waving to you each morning as you headed out for work. I will miss seeing you and Joey walking hand-in-hand around the neighborhood. I will miss your kind words and gentle ways. I will miss your sweet "hello's" to Noah everyday on your way home from work. I will miss leaning inside your truck as you were coming home from work and just chatting. I will miss your cooking tips and your nagging that I need to eat more spinach. I will miss running into you at Trader Joe's and getting cooking tips as I saw you in each aisle. I will miss seeing you at each of Noah's birthday parties. I will miss seeing you and Joey waiting outside on your steps on Halloween waiting to give Noah candy. I will miss talking with you in the middle of the cul-de-sac about how awesome our new roofs look. I will miss waving at you through the rain. I will miss having a handyman next door to help me with blinds and big bushes I don't know how to remove from my yard! Troy, we will miss you, everything about you. Joey, we adore you and are here for you always. God Bless you.

“ No words can describe what you meant to me. A great friend, mentor, and confidant that was always ready to help or listen. There are some people in this world who make the lives of everyone they touch better. Troy was that kind of person. He was one of the people I looked forward to seeing every day. He was just a joy to know and be around. I will miss him dearly.

“ The last communication I had with Troy was making plans to meet for dinner with Joey. Their love for each other always amazed me. These are Troy's own words "Actually life for me and Joey is nothing less than great. She is in a part time job that she loves. She is a great wife and I adore her so much." I pray that the love they shared will help Joey endure through this most difficult time.

“ Once in a while you meet someone who radiates love, laughter, and caring and whose simple presence makes the world a more beautiful place to be... Once in a while, you're lucky enough to find a friend who makes a difference in more ways than you ever imagined... Thank you for being that kind of special friend in my life! Knowing you has made me a better person!
