“ I am terribly sorry to hear of such a tragic loss. I know now that Tyler is at peace and no longer suffering here on earth. I remember spending time with both Tyler and his family when I was younger. If I was not living in Denver I would be at the service. May you rest easy.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. It's so hard when a young person's life is cut short. But God promises in His Word the Bible that all those sleeping in death will be resurrected, and we will be able to see them again soon. (John 5:28-29 and Psalm 37:29) May this give you comfort and hope. And may the love and support of family and friends help you to get through the grieving process and to keep enduring.

“ Tyler, we have been best friends since 3rd grade. We moved to Olde Sawmill at the same time and as little boys, all we needed was hockey to start an 18-year-old friendship. I have seen you at your worst and at your best, you were truly a great young man and it shows in your artwork and the love you gave to Allyson and Amy. I love you so much and I am still in shock because I saw you only hours before you departed from this world. You were like a fraternal twin brother I never had and I will never forget all of the time we spent together over these past 18 years. I wish that one day, you and your family will eventually be at peace.
