

Vanessa Gail Bing

January 16, 1956 - January 18, 2026

Vanessa Gail Bing, 70, of Mount Gilead, Ohio, passed away peacefully in her sleep on January 18, 2026. Born January 16, 1956, in Logan, West Virginia to Lester and Charlotte Bing, she was raised in Columbus, Ohio. Despite early challenges with undiagnosed dyslexia, she developed a lifelong appreciation for reading.

Vanessa married Robert Christopher Souder in 1972, and they welcomed their son, Robert Wayne Souder, in 1974. After their divorce, she married Michael Stalter, with whom she continued to raise Wayne, supported greatly by her parents. Later, Vanessa partnered with Andrew Brummel, and together they traveled the country as a long-haul trucking team.

She will be remembered for her warmth and ability to connect with everyone she met. Vanesa enjoyed crocheting, especially making quilts from the squares she created.

She is survived by her son Wayne (Katrina) Souder of Delaware, granddaughters Sierra and Delenn, siblings Cumi (Steve) Roberts, Delilah (Bryan) Hetterscheidt, Dort Denise Bing, and Ken (Mona) Bing, as well as nieces, nephews and extended family. She is preceded in death by her parents, sister Kathy and Russ Tucker.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 18, 2026, at Centerburg Christian Church, 33 Church Street, Centerburg, OH 43011. Family and friends are welcome at 11 a.m. with the service at 12 p.m., and lunch to follow.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

APR 18. 12:00 PM (ET)

Centerburg Christian Church
33 Church Street
Centerburg, OH 43011

Tribute Wall

KH

“ Karen Hastings purchased the Emerald Garden Basket for the family of Vanessa Gail Bing.

Karen Hastings - April 16 at 04:49 PM

MC

“ I met Vanessa at a Thanksgiving gathering one year. She had interesting stories to tell about her trucking days. Sending condolences to her family members and friends.

Melinda Coates - April 16 at 04:07 PM

“ Sending my deepest sympathies and sincere condolences to Robert Souder and all of Vanessa's friends and family.

Jacob Baker - January 30 at 09:13 AM

WA

“ I'll never forget when she showed up at Hooters one night to watch wrestling with us. There was about 10 of us, I hollered "Mom!" And the rest chimed in with "Mom!" too! The severed was taken back when she heard. She asked, " Are ALL of them yours??" Mom replied " No, just the two on the end, but I claim them all." We chuckled the rest of the night about it.

Wayne - January 28 at 11:45 AM

MC

Condolences to Wayne & family. I met Vanessa once at a Thanksgiving dinner. She kept us entertained with stories about her trucking days. RIP.

Melinds Coates - January 28 at 12:56 PM

Remembering parties and laughter. May God bring peace and comfort to her family. With love, Joyce Cleary

Joyce Cleary - January 29 at 07:56 AM

TB

With heartfelt sympathy. May you find comfort in the love surrounding you and your families. Hugs, Tammy

Tammy Bailey - January 30 at 10:13 AM