“ Bill,

I am very saddened to hear of your wife's passing. Unfortunately I never had the pleasure of meeting her but have known you for about 25 years or so. You have a lot of friends in our business and have always been respected for your pleasant and professional manner. Give your family a big hug from the OU family.

*Respectfully
John Brant*

“ It sounds strange, but Vickie was one of the first college-educated, white collar professionals I ever had as a role model. I'm certain she contributed to my decision to study advertising and pursue a career in creative direction. How else would I have arrived at the idea? There were precious few ad agencies in rural Southeast Georgia. She was brilliant, kind and always so encouraging. The Easterdays will always be family to me and Vickie will be dearly missed. This was such sad news, but I know Vickie would've reminded me of a quote framed on my office wall by her former neighbor - and my late uncle: "Never hurry. Never worry. Acceptance is the greatest accomplishment." -Joe Dixon

“ Bill, it is as though South Riverview Street has lost a portion of its heart. But time will heal. I think I know how close so many of you were and will continue to be. Vickie will be missed but she was a vital part of the life of that part of the community from what I have heard. Tom Holton

“ My sister Tracy and I grew up with Vickie and Bill. We took many family vacations together. They would come over and watch The Wizard of Oz with us. Somewhere over the rainbow she is making someone laugh with her clever and witty personality. She will be dearly missed. Lifting up prayers for the family.

“ It's devastating to lose such a cheerful friend and colleague. She always had our backs and always made us feel like she was on our side. She was a perfect blend of warmth and intelligence. Vickie also added a warm personal touch to her work, which is so endearing. I'm happy to add that the laughter was abundant regardless of the day to day difficulties. Jenn, Marc, Amy and I will miss her deeply.

“ The memories are too plentiful to write about currently. What I do know is that I could not have had a better friend who truly knew me. I absolutely loved her and am heart broken. She always made me laugh. I am so glad that we have been able to visit regularly over the years. She was always a priority when I visited Columbus. I was blessed knowing her.
