

Vickie Lynn Smart

February 16, 1954 - March 30, 2020

Vickie Lynn Smart, 66 of Lewis Center Ohio, passed away peacefully Monday March 30, at home after a long battle with cancer. Born February 16, 1954 in Cincinnati to James M. and Delores (Ritter) Hon, Vickie was a 1972 graduate and a member of the Honor Society at Buckeye Valley High School. Her interests focused on Journalism during her High School years which she continued to pursue at Ohio State University. Leaving college, Vickie began a career in retail sales in clothing and jewelry. She eventually started working at Berman's Leather Goods eventually managing the Westland mall store, followed by the larger Northland and Eastland stores. However, the hours of retail became too onerous resulting in a move to a few banking positions. Vickie then got work in the new computer/internet sector with a position in Human Services at CompuServe. Her hard work led her to many promotions at CompuServe and later management positions at World Comm and Metatec.

In 1982, Vickie married William L. Smart, a marriage lasting 38 years. They had one daughter, Karlyn Mackenzie, both who survive her. Also surviving are a brother James Hon, two sisters- in- law, Diane Lynn (Smart) Schmidt (Edward) and Tamara Sue (Smart) Duffy, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Outside of work, Vickie was a devoted mother, avid reader and enjoyed word games and making jewelry for her and her friends. Vickie and William are active members of St Mary Catholic Church in Delaware, Ohio. Vickie was a volunteer at the church office until she developed serious health issues.

In 2005, Vickie was diagnosed with advanced breast cancer. She and her medical team managed to keep her cancer at bay for 14 plus years. Unfortunately, her cancer metastasized into her bone and finally the liver and lung.

Vickie and her husband supported several cancer and medical charities as well as Special Olympics.

Due to health restrictions currently in force, her service will be restricted to immediate family only. Arrangements by: RUTHERFORD FUNERAL HOME AT POWELL, 450 W. Olentangy St., Powell, OH. Condolences may be left at: www.RutherfordFuneralHomes.com

“ Bill and Makenzie my heart goes out to you both. I am so grateful to have gotten the opportunity to get to know her. She had just about the best attitude I've ever seen, and her sharp wit and intellect were matched only by her kindness. Truly the world is dimmer without her light. Love and peace to your whole family in this difficult time.

For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and melt it into the sun? Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing. And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance. Kahlil Gibran.
