“ *Dear Jeni, Nancy and Families,
Our deepest sympathy to all of you during the loss of your dear Mother. We had so many fun times together through the years. We loved her delicious cookies, laughter and spiritual connections. She took excellent care of her special dogs. We gave her SPARKY, a loving pet, after my cousin Kate went to Heaven. What a loving home she provided. Heaven must be a beautiful place, for it has so many special people up above. Treasure all of the wonderful memories you shared as a family, they will sustain you. Many lives were touched by this special Angel. She was so proud of her dear family. God Bless, Love and Prayers, Linda and Art Signore*

“ Nancy and Jeni,

So sorry to hear of Virginia's passing. My memories are so fond of her and her generosity. Quick to offer a Klondike bar or a cup of homemade soup to her mailman. She was a genuine person, a friend that I enjoyed spending time with. As life gets busy I did not get to see her as often as I would have liked - yet she was in my thoughts frequently. I wish peace to her and to your families.
