

Vivian E. Haney

November 25, 1937 - February 9, 2026

Vivian Elvera Haney, 88, of Mentor, Ohio, passed away on February 9, 2026, at Worthington Christian Village in Worthington, Ohio. She was born on November 25, 1937, in Steubenville, Ohio, to Adrian H. Huggins and Linnea M. Huggins, and grew up in Euclid, Ohio. Vivian married Edward W. Haney in November 1956. Together they built a life rooted in family, creativity, and friendship. She was a homemaker, a talented artist, and a freelance sign painter. Vivian loved to travel, especially to Greece, and she cultivated many strong friendships throughout her life. She is survived by her children: Edward (Marjorie) Haney, Vicki (Mel) House, and Vivian (Michael) Sarkis; grandchildren, Nicole (Ryan) Greer, Danielle (Michael) Sharpnack, Arielle (Andrew) Hieronimus, Jarrod House, Lauren (Rafael) Perez, and Anthony Sarkis; and eight great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

Her final resting place will be beside her husband at Ohio Western Reserve National Cemetery in Seville, Ohio.

A Celebration of Life will be announced at a later date.

Cemetery Details

Ohio Western Reserve National Cemetery

Rittman, OH